TUSD Seeks Applicants for Measure L Citizens' Oversight Committee

The Tustin Unified School District is seeking applicants for its Measure L Citizens' Oversight Committee. Measure L is the District's $95 million school facilities modernization bond that passed in 2008.

The committee consists of at least seven members, including a parent or guardian of a child enrolled in the District; a parent or guardian active in a parent-teacher organization such as a PTA, PTO or school-site council; a person who is active in a senior citizens' organization; an individual who is active in a bonafide taxpayers association; and an at-large representative.

The District is seeking an at-large representative and PTA/PTO school site representative.

The TUSD Board of Education will appoint two new members to the committee to inform the public regarding the expenditure of Measure L's proceeds for school construction.

The oversight committee also engages in activities such as receive and review copies of performance and financial audits, and inspect school facilities and grounds.

Individuals interested in serving on the TUSD Measure L Citizens' Oversight Committee see attached to obtain an application. All applications must be returned to the Chief Financial Officer at the District Administration Center, 300 South C St., by 4 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 5. For more information, call (714) 730-7301, ext. 302.
